Picton Library's oldno CDigits

We want you!

A group for Year 7 and over

aldno CDigits

This is a group for students who are Year 7 or older who like to do any of these things:

Read

Joke

Share knowledge

Gain knowledge

Make things

Be together

Eat

Talk

Laugh

A bit more reading

Eat again

Joke and talk about what they're reading, while eating together...

Side effects will be learning how the library works and where everything is, to help while you're becoming brilliant scientists/writers/artists/chefs/vets/accountants/oceanographers/human beings/etc.

School assignment success secrets

Know how to hunt down the info you needed yesterday 'cos your assignment is due tomorrow and you left it 'til the last minute...again.

Find out where librarians hide things.

Actually, we don't hide things, it just feels that way sometimes.

New Books

First peek at shiny, new-smelling books that no one has spilled their mince and cheese pie on.

Old books

Just like new books, only with the mince and cheese pie smell that you know and love.

Authors

Who are YOU reading?

Librarians as a species

Get to know who we are, what we do and what we can do for you.

DISCOVERY

Our coming-soon library search system. Find out how to use it (when it gets here very soon).

Google

Surf, sift and store.

Fact: There's more to Google than trying to find game cheats.

YouTube

The good, the useful and the downright hilarious.

Share the links.

We meet once a month (on the last Thursday) at Picton Library at 3:45. We start with a snack, a drink and a chat about what we've been up to. We do one organised activity, a few disorganised activities and wrap it all up at 4:30.

We'll see YOU here!

You may be required to read. And possibly think too, but not at dangerous levels.
